ClefWorks announces schedule for 2009 ‘Dream On’ series

MONTGOMERY, Ala. – Inspired by a city, by voices of her rich past and by the hopes and dreams of her children, ClefWorks’ Dream On 2009 season undertakes to celebrate the heritage of Montgomery and its promising future. As the original ClefWorks dream – one so boldly imagined by its first ClefWorkers – becomes a breathtaking reality for our community, this season’s music festival reaches back and applauds not only the great dreams of those in Montgomery’s past but those who are a part of her current aspirations for a bright and promising future.

The 2009 festival continues the vision of ClefWorks and promises to be another “can’t miss” series of events filled with multiple opportunities to enjoy wonderful music in a relaxed setting without fussy dress or stuffy attitudes. Come revel in the magic of ClefWorks and dream with us.

The opening night performance for Dream On 2009 will be held Thursday, Jan. 29, at 7:30 p.m., featuring some fabulous dance music – including a little tango – and some breathtakingly beautiful music by classical composer Schumann.

On Saturday, Jan. 31, at 10 a.m., the ClefWorks Children’s Concert returns for another exciting morning of music and fun. That evening at 7:30, ClefWorks will Celebrate Montgomery with music that includes tunes by Gershwin, a little bit of Appalachia and the premiere of the winning score of music from our Composition Competition.

Interspersed in all these happenings will be other ClefWorks outreach events and master classes designed to make music approachable for the entire community.
